

The Palais Royal and Its "Cash" Business

The Advantages of Prompt Cash

Take two individuals, two merchants or two nations. Give one the advantages of prompt cash and let the other have to rely upon credit. What is the result? History, past or present, tells us the advantage is inevitably with prompt cash. It ever was and ever will be. The rule is to be once more proven—the individual with prompt cash is to visit the Palais Royal tomorrow and secure bargains that only prompt cash made possible.

$1.00 Black Silks, 59c and 79c

27 and 36 Inches Wide, Respectively.

Black Taffeta Silk, guaranteed best of $1 quality, at 59c and 79c. A cash business does not make such surprisingly little prices the rule—but it does enable the grasping of a passing opportunity and makes such prices occasionally possible. That these silks are $1 quality, and that they are retailing here at 59c and 79c is now generally known.

50c to 89c Silks, 39c, 49c, and 75c.

White Habutai Silks are wanted, and for merchant or you to secure supplies at any rebate in price is worthy of recital. 24-inch at 39c instead of 50c yard—note that this silk is extra good value at 50c, being extra heavy. 27-inch, 49c, and 75c for 89c qualities.

89c for $1.00 Crepe de Paris, Etc.

The filmy Crepe de Paris and Silk Eolienne are among this season's fashionable fabrics. Black and various colors in artistic shades, guaranteed $1 quality, at only 89c a yard. A word of explanation is needed—the superior imported Eolienne is offered at 89c, and not the inferior domestic make. This brings out one of our stock phrases—the Palais Royal does not lower quality in order to lower price.

Lupin's Famous Black Voiles

75c and $1.25 for $1 and $1.50 Qualities.

The name of Lupin is a guarantee accepted the world over. Lupin's 40-inch Voiles at 75c instead of $1, and 42-inch at $1.25, instead of $1.50, are truly aristocratic bargains.

"Old Time" Black Taffeta Silks are more high-class bargains—20-inch at 79c instead of $1; 27-inch at $1 instead of $1.50; 36-inch at $1.35 instead of $2. These are guaranteed silks.

Checks at 35c, 49c, 68c, 75c, and $1

Don't you remember reading the following in the Palais Royal announcement of two months ago: "Dame Fashion says 'checks.'" Anticipating the demand, enormous quantities were secured for you—and now the Palais Royal is headquarters for checks. Wool Checks at 35c to $1; Silk Checks at 49c to $1. Miles of them—and not a few bargain spots.

Oriental

50c

18 Inches Wide

One of the Bargain Spots—among the Oriental Lace Nets. Note that 3 to 10-inch laces for sleeves and berthas are only 22c a yard.

$1.00 to $4.50

These prices are very low—for such laces. The illustrations make them look "as flat as pancakes." They are raised floral effects, as rounded as life. The patterns are separable, a small quantity can be made conspicuously effective; 3 to 10 inches wide, $1 to $4.50 yard.

Lace Robes, $8 to $45

Lace and Spangled Robes—at dollars less than the prices asked at the stores where such goods are usually found.

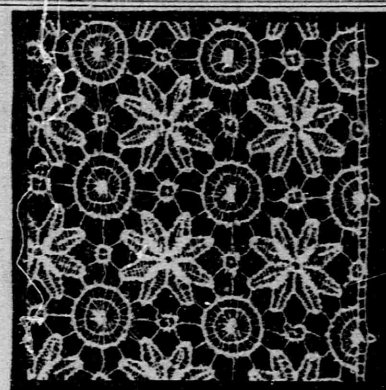

Coats, too. See the Hand-made Renaissance Lace Coat patterns here at only $12.

Point Venice

75c

18 Inches Wide

This All-over Lace, generally selling at $1, is here at 75c a yard. See illustration. As good bargains among the more expensive Baby Crochet Lace, up to $5.50 a yard.

Wash Dress Fabrics

9c

12c

18c

25c

12c Value 19c Value 25c Value 37c Value

Mountains of newly beautiful wash fabrics. Only the bargain sorts told of here—9c for 12c Figured Lawns; 12c for 19c Figured Organdies, with floral designs in natural colors; 18c for 25c White Persian Lawn; 25c for 37c Mercerized Madras. These are passing bargains—such bargains are ever coming and going where a cash business is energetically pushed.

Embroidered Robes

$30 Instead of $42.50

They are hand-embroidered, made in England. Very elaborate, with double flounces. Expensive—$42.50 is the prevailing price. Here at only $30.

Waists at $1 to $5.25

Patterns comprising 2½ yards of 40-inch wide material, with embroidery for front, collar, and cuffs. Easily put together—consult one of the attendants.

Embroideries, 39c

For Corset Covers

Made especially with beading for ribbon. Choice of twenty-five artistic patterns, all 18 inches wide. Of finest quality. The price—39c yard—is very little.

Choice for 10c Yard

Worth as much as 25c a yard. Choice for 10c, because all widths are not here in each pattern. A big tableful of them—Edges and Insertings, 2 to 7 inches wide.

The New Ribbons

13c

17c

29c

39c

19c Value 25c Value 40c Value 68c Value

The Palais Royal has long been famous as headquarters for ribbons. More bargains and better bargains come from here than all other stores in Washington combined. Just now, 3 and 5-inch Taffeta Ribbons are 13c and 17c instead of 19c and 25c. Floral effect Ribbons for girdles and sashes are 29c and 39c instead of 40c and 68c.

Only 54c

Only 100 Dozen

Made as well as any one dollar Waist you ever saw—note the tiny stitches and neat finish. Of India linen, as sheer as ever used in dollar waists. See the picture and note that the collar and cuffs are pleated, a rarity in waists at less than one dollar. Let's be conservative—54c for better than the best 75c waist you ever saw. Only 100 dozen of them, and no more in sight.

Silk Waists

$1.98 $2.59

$3.39

Worth $2.69 to $4.50

Lingerie Waists here at $1.98 to $5 are meeting with too much favor. The sale of White China Silk Waist suffers. A certain remedy—$1.98 for Silk Waists marked $2.69, only $2.59 for $2.98 and $3.59 Waists, only $3.39 for $3.98 and $4.50 Waists. See illustration—note the elaborate trimming.

Cloth Skirts

$5.98 $8 $14

Worth $7.50 to $20

A Skirt of all-wool cloth, thoroughly sponged, and then made up by a man tailor, is cheap at $7.50. Forty-four of them here—at only $5.98 each. At $8 are usual $10 skirts; at $14 are box-pleated Voile Skirts, with taffeta drop.

Only 48c

Only 50 Dozen.

Sacques and Kimonos, spring poems of white and fancy wash materials; various styles; some merely experiments. Some more practical; all are the prettiest and daintiest of garments, and only 48c.

Undergarments Reduced

A treat regular patrons will appreciate—broken lots of Gowns, Skirts, Drawers, and Corset Covers at 46c instead of 50c to 75c; at 66c instead of $1.00 to $1.48; at 84c instead of $1.50 to $2.50. First floor tables.

Suits, $13.50 and $16.98

Usually $15 and $20

The bargain spots dotting this $20,000 collection of new Spring Suits. The $15 Suits at $13.50 are good quality cheviot, blouse, and jacket styles, taffeta and satin lined. Sizes for slimmest to stoutest forms. The $20 Suits at $16.98 are Panama cloth, cheviot, and English tourist, blouse and jacket styles, with skirts box and side pleated. All sizes, in grays, blues, browns, greens, and mixtures.

Silk Suits, $10, $13.50, and $20

The suits at $20 are tailor-made and as good as to order suits at $40. The suits at $13.50 are of plain and changeable silks, checks and stripe taffeta, all well worth $15. The $10 suits are similar, but less elaborate.

Millinery

The Palais Royal feature this season is Millinery and Parasols made in conjunction. The newly small Paris style Hat and the attractively large American Picture Hat. Each has a Parasol accompaniment.

$5 $7.50 $10

The Hats at these prices are trimmed to order, which should assure the wearer the best possible result. With materials galore and artist milliners a satisfactory result is certain here.

Parasols

Parasols can be elaborate enough to cost $20, and that price moderate. The handles of some are works of art. The Palais Royal collection is without a peer in Washington.

$1.79 $3 $3.88

The Pongee Parasols, with hemstitched borders, are only $1.79. A collection at $3 for choice includes many worth $5. The new canopy and Japanese Parasols at $3.88 will appeal to many.

Spring Undergarments

25c

13c

10c

39c Suits

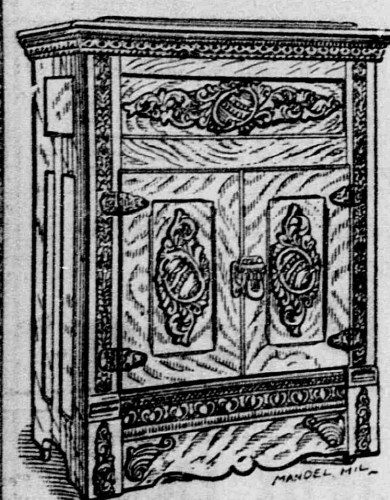

19c Vests

13c Vests

The improved glove-fitting Swiss Ribbed garments. Union Suits in all sizes at 25c, instead of 39c. Note that the usual 50c Union Suits are here at 39c. Superior Separate Vests, Pants, and Corset Covers are only 25c. Vests at 13c, worth 19c, and at 10c worth 13c.

Hose at 25c, 35c, and 49c

The Hose to wear with tan and russet shoes—ladies', men's, and children's. Plain ribbed, and lace effects, in medium to lightest weights. A specialty—the Silk-finish Cobweb Lisle Hose at 49c, as good as $1 plated silk hose.
